Dear Judy,

Your keynote for Choice Hotels Summer Camp 2004 was hysterical, fantastic, and beyond my expectations. As the meeting planner, I watched a million tapes looking for the right speaker -- someone really funny whose upbeat message would land with a diverse group of professionals. Your tape was great, but when dealing with comedy, you never know what to expect. As soon as you took the stage and used the details from our interview to really connect with the audience, I knew you were going to hit one out of the ballpark.

You were the last person on the docket at the end of a very long day, and you really brought the house down. Not one person left the room and the feedback I got after the event was that you were one of the funniest speakers we've ever had, and we've had a lot of big names, including Jay Leno. Thanks for helping make our event so successful.

Sincerely,
