

Judy Carter's Requirements

Riser

If you don't have a stage, Judy prefers a riser to stand on since she is short. And needs to be at least taller than the waiters. Riser should be no smaller than 8ft by 4ft.

Microphone

Lavalier wireless microphone. Please note that Judy will not be using a podium.

Stage Items

- Small table
- Bottled water
- Audience seated as near to the stage as possible.

PowerPoint setup with screen (if applicable)

Judy will bring her own computer and will need an audio output to her computer into your sound system, as well as a video output to your projector.

Lighting

Don't let Judy speak in the dark. Have some kind of lighting so the audience can see her expressions.

Book Signing (if applicable)

A table will be necessary in the back of the room for Judy to sell and sign books.

Handouts (if applicable)

If Judy is doing a workshop for you, a master set of participant materials will be provided for the meeting planner to duplicate.

Product Sales (if applicable)

Have your group take Judy's message home. Available are books, videos, and CD's. Download order form.

Audio/Video Recording

No audio or video recorders of any kind may be used during the presentation without the prior permission of Judy Carter

Lodging

Usually at least one overnight is required, reserved for late arrival. East coast events, two nights are usually required. Please have the room and tax booked to the client whenever possible. Judy requires a non-smoking room.

Judy Carter's Stage Setup

Small Table

Flip Chart

Steps into audience

Audience

Introduction for Judy Carter

Tonight we've got something very different for you. Our guest speaker is Judy Carter, Goddess of Comedy -- but she says we can just call her "Goddess."

Judy Carter is an acclaimed standup comic appearing on over a hundred television shows. Ten years ago she formed her company Comedy Workshops where she trains stand-up comics, and her new book, "The Comedy Bible" was featured on "Good Morning America" and "Oprah" where Oprah Winfrey herself recommended the book to anyone who wants to lighten up.

In the past five years, Judy has become an expert in showing how humor techniques can help everyone deal with stress and change. Her work with Corporate America has made her a sought after speaker and has lead to her being featured in the Wall Street Journal, New York Times, Success Magazine, and National Public Radio.

So... showing us "How to Laugh our way out of Stress."

Ladies and Gentlemen... Judy Carter.

